DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to applicant's communication filed on July 22, 2004.

Amendments to claims 1, 18 and 32 have been entered. Claims 1-36 are pending in this application and have been examined. The rejections and response to arguments are stated below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Giovannoli (US Pat. No: 5,842,178) in view of Odom (US Pat. No: 6,058,379) in view of Mandler et al (US Pat. No: 5,732,400) and further in view of Popolo (US Pat. No: 5,715,402) as discussed in Paragraphs 4-6 of the office action mailed on November 6, 2003 (Paper No. 15).

Response to Arguments

4. In response to applicant's assertion that cited prior art does not teach "a comparison value", the Examiner disagrees. Popolo teaches the steps of normalizing the data according the needs of the buyer (See Popolo Abstract and claim 1). Also the step of normalizing is old and well known. For instance in international transactions when the prices have to be quoted in different currencies, the conversion to foreign currency is made by taking the ratio of the prices in a domestic currency and the prevailing exchange rate. The prevailing exchange rate is nothing but a price metric representing the market price of a given currency. Standardizing the prices to the currency of the buyer helps the buyer compare different quotes, especially if the vendors are from different countries.

Applicant's other arguments have been considered but are not persuasive.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
